

Position	:	Chief Executive Officer
Qualification	:	Bachelor's Degree in Engineering/Technology (Computer Science, Information Technology, Electronics & Communication or equivalent) from a recognized University/Institute. MBA/Post Graduate Degree or Post Graduate Diploma in Management from a recognized University/Institute will be preferred. Additional qualifications/certifications in Business Leadership, Digital Transformation, Cyber Security, Artificial Intelligence, Cloud Technologies, Project Management or Corporate Governance will be an added advantage.
Age	:	Between 45 Years and 55 Years
Experience	:	The candidate should possess minimum 20 years of post-qualification experience in Information Technology, Digital Services, Telecom, Technology Consulting, Software Development or related sectors. At least 10 years of senior leadership experience, including a minimum of 5 years in the capacity of CEO/COO/CTO/Executive Director/Business Head or equivalent in a reputed organization. Minimum 5-10 years of experience in leading large-scale IT projects, enterprise digital transformation, software products, managed services, cloud solutions, cyber security initiatives and technology consulting.
Profile	:	The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) shall be the Head of the Company and will be responsible for providing strategic leadership, driving business growth, ensuring operational excellence, and achieving the Company's long-term vision and objectives. The CEO shall lead the organization in developing innovative IT solutions, strengthening customer relationships, enhancing profitability, and ensuring compliance with statutory, regulatory, and corporate governance requirements. The incumbent will be expected to: • Formulate and execute the Company's strategic and business plans. • Lead overall operations and ensure achievement of financial and operational targets. • Identify new business opportunities and expand the Company's market presence. • Drive innovation, digital transformation, and operational efficiency.

	• Build and maintain relationships with Government agencies, clients, partners, regulators, and other stakeholders. • Ensure compliance with applicable laws, corporate governance norms, and Company policies. • Lead, mentor, and develop the executive leadership team and employees. The ideal candidate should possess proven leadership and strategic management capabilities, strong business acumen with the ability to drive growth and organizational transformation. Extensive experience in Information Technology, Digital Transformation, Software Development, System Integration, Network Services, IT Infrastructure, or related sectors. The incumbent is expected to have sound understanding of finance, corporate governance, risk management, and regulatory compliance, Excellent communication, negotiation, stakeholder management, and decision-making skills. Demonstrated ability to lead multidisciplinary teams and foster a high-performance culture. The incumbent should have experience in business development, client relationship management, and execution of large-scale technology projects. A result-oriented approach, sound commercial acumen and the ability to drive organizational transformation and operational excellence will be critical for success in this role.
--	--